

Oliver Spring 2006

*Move
your feet
to the beat*

SUBMITTED

■ Students perform in 'Oliver!': Dover Area High School students performed 'Oliver!' Feb. 24, 25 and 26 in the high school auditorium. The play is the classic tale of Charles Dickens' 'Oliver Twist,' set to music with tunes such as 'Consider Yourself,' 'As Long As He Needs Me' and 'Food, Glorious Food.' Pictured are senior Josh Rowand as Mr. Bumble, sophomore Hillary Miller as Oliver and junior Heather Ryan as Widow Corney during the production.

SUBMITTED

■ Cast involves youth: Hillary Miller as Oliver and Jesse Rupp as Fagin smile into the crowd during the 'Oliver' production. More than 75 students, including eight intermediate-school students, were involved in all aspects of the production. Some students involved were freshman Justin Jans as the Artful Dodger, junior Yvette Hershey as Nancy and sophomore Timothy Mummert as Bill Sykes. Two of the school's foreign-exchange students also had roles, Simon Weiland as Dr. Grimwig and Ann Kristen Brodish as the bookseller's assistant. This year, on opening night, more than 20 members of the North Salem Elementary School select ensemble were invited up on stage to sing the final curtain-call songs. The production was directed by Jacklyn Keagy; assistant director and costumer was Jeanne Purtell; pit conductor was George Bradshaw; musical director was Andrew Apgar; and set designer and construction supervisor was Dale Keagy.